

Friends of the New Forest FOREST MATTERS “LOCKDOWN QUIZ” * To make it easier there are multiple choice answers, but be careful, although there is always one correct answer, for some questions you have to identify two or even three correct answers. *To make it even easier, all the answers may be found in back numbers of our magazine, Forest Matters. We have even told you which issue!	Possible Answers
Issue 1
The National Park set up a five year scheme in 2016 called 'Our Past, Our Future'. Which two of the listed projects were supported financially with the gift of £39,000 by the Friends of the New Forest?	Discovering Forest Heritage	Apprentice Rangers	Restoring Lost Landscapes
What anniversary did the Friends of the New Forest celebrate in 2017?	50th	100th	150th
Common of Pasture permits you to graze animals on the open Forest. What area of land with Common of Pasture Rights do you have to occupy?	Half an acre	One acre	Five acres
What is the smallest species of deer in the New Forest?	Sika	Muntjac	Roe
As measured in 2015, which of the following Forest oak trees had the largest girth?	Adam Oak	Knightwood Oak	Rockford Oak
Britain's rarest reptile is found in the New Forest. Which of the following is it?	Natterjack toad	Smooth snake	Sand lizard
Issue 2
What was the name of the man known for catching snakes in the New Forest?	'Brusher Mills'	'Snake' Brown	Harry the Snake Catcher
The HLS Scheme is a ten year programme aimed at restoring internationally important New Forest habitats. Which Forest organisation holds the HLS agreement with Natural England?	Forestry England	New Forest National Park Authority	The Verderers
Which of the following organisations is the same age as the Friends of the New Forest (New Forest Association)?	Open Spaces Society	National Trust	Ramblers

In 2009 the New Forest Non-Native Plants Project was set up, run by Catherine Chatters. Which of the following plants does it aim to eradicate?	Japanese Knotweed	American Skunk Cabbage	Himalayan Water Balsam
In which year was the New Forest Act passed following extensive lobbying by the then recently formed New Forest Association (now known as the Friends of the New Forest)?	1865	1877	1892
In which New Forest village was a successful community shop and post office set up in 2011?	Woodgreen	Pilley	Bransgore
Issue 3
The New Forest Trust is working to replace old farm buildings with a purpose-built home to be let to a young commoner, and the Friends is contributing £25,000 to this scheme. Where is it to be?	Boldre	Minstead	Rockford
What national organisation works to protect and enhance National Parks? The Friends are of course members.	Campaign for National Parks	National Trust	The Countryside Alliance
The lockdown has seen a lot of unauthorised parking in the Forest. Where should the public not park their cars?	The roadside	Verges	In front of Forest access gates
What relaxing activity did vice chair Gale Gould espouse in the Forest?	Yoga	'Forest Bathing'	Mindfulness
Which Friends member was the New Forest's 'Welly Boot Star' in the Channel 4 series on the New Forest?	Ann Sevier	Richard Reeves	Clive Chatters
Why is the Pondhead Inclosure different from other parts of the Forest?	It is fenced off	It has not been subject to rights of common for centuries	It is outside the Crown Lands
Issue 4
From which European country did workers come in WW1 to assist with forestry operations?	Greece	Belgium	Portugal
The New Forest National Park Authority has launched a partnership aimed at protecting and enhancing our 'natural capital'. What is its name?	Green Halo	Green Do'nut	Green Circle
What word completes this slogan on the New Forest Tour Bus - 'Ponies don't ????, they die'?	Bounce	Dent	Bend
Which organisation owns the Foxbury site in the north of the Forest, which is being restored back to lowland heathland and mixed deciduous woodland habitat?	National Trust	Forestry England	RSPB

What equipment have the Friends paid for to help the Wild New Forest partnership to investigate the threats to curlews?	Nestcams	Webcams	Nest temperature loggers
In 2018 the Butterfly Conservation charity ran a project asking people to record sightings of a nationally rare butterfly with a stronghold in the Forest. Which was it?	The Pearl-Bordered Fritillary	The Silver-Studded Blue	The Green Hairstreak
Issue 5
Friends Council member Ann Sevier ran a wildflower meadow walk in summer 2018. For how many generations has her family farmed at Blissford?	10	13	19
The Friends gave financial support to the RSPB when they bought their first reserve in the New Forest, near Nomansland. What is it called?	Hamptworth Hill	Bramshaw Copse	Franchises Lodge
What term is applied to the cattle and ponies grazing the Forest?	The architects of the Forest	The soul of the Forest	The heart of the Forest
How many Forestry Commission 'Walk Foresters' were there in 2018 when Simon Holloway wrote an article about his enjoyable occupation?	4	3	2
Vice-President of the Friends, Peter Frost was concerned about the rate of depletion of woodland fringe on the New Forest coastline between Pitts Deep and Pylewell. What would he like to see planted further back from the coast?	Beech and gorse	Thorn and oak	Pines and heather
What percentage of the New Forest's Sites of Special Scientific Interest are described as being in an unfavourable state?	47%	25%	33%
Issue 6
Who gave the well-received presentation about 're-wilding' at the Friends' winter event in 2019?	Chris Packham	Clive Chatters	Sir Charles Burrell
How often should Forestry England update its Forest Design Plan in consultation with local bodies like the Friends?	Every 10 years	Every 20 years	Every 5 years
What unpleasant illness results from the bite of an infected tick in the Forest?	Anaplasmosis	Arthritis	Lyme Disease
In the past almost every Royal Forest could count squatters among its residents. Many were 'encroachers' who erected buildings quickly. Which New Forest settlements began as a collection of such buildings?	Woodgreen	Beaulieu Rails	East Boldre

A review of 'The Hidden Life of Trees' revealed the author's view that trees have some interesting abilities. Which of the following does he maintain are true?	Trees can communicate	Trees can smell	Trees can taste
Which author and cartoonist contributes the cartoon in 'Forest Matters'?	Simon Chadwick	Robert Whiting	Phillipa Firth
Issue 7
What animals have been reintroduced and subsidised in the Pyrenees to protect sheep from recently reintroduced bears?	Wolves	Patou Dogs	German Shepherd Dogs
What percentage of the remaining valley mires left in North-West Europe are found in the New Forest?	25%	50%	75%
The Friends organise occasional visits to places of special interest. Which have we visited in recent years?	Foxbury	Franchises Lodge	Pondhead Inclosure
Which important Forest resource, run by a Friends member, is undergoing a transformation?	St Barbe Museum	New Forest Heritage Centre	Fordingbridge Museum
Who took over from Oliver Crosthwaite Eyre as the Friends' President in 2019?	Professor Matthew Kelly	Dominic May	Chris Packham
Whose photographs of Victorian men are on show at Brockenhurst Station?	Lewis Carroll	Julia Margaret Cameron	Henry Fox Talbot
Issue 8
What water feature has been discovered at RSPB's Franchises Lodge Reserve?	Decoy Pond	Fountain	Rill
What mammal has returned quietly to the New Forest?	Weasel	Water vole	Pine Marten
Who wrote 'Remarks on Forest Scenery and other Woodland Views' in 1791?	William Gilpin	Daniel Defoe	Edmund Burke
What Forest animals were involved in incidents which encouraged Forestry England to permit the Commoners Defence Association to post signage on the law relating to dogs on grazing land?	Pigs	Ponies	Cattle
What aspects of the New Forest fix carbon?	Old-growth woodlands	Muddy sediments along the coast	Bogs
National Trust staff and volunteers carry out surveys across the Northern and Western Commons of the Forest. How many species of bat are thought to feed on NT land in the New Forest?	11	5	8